Never Forget

By Elizabeth Pallarito

Today our world is very fractured in every category that comes to the human mind. Yet, 20 years ago, on September 11th, we all were united as one country. Americans put aside all differences and focused on being strong together as God created us to be. As we go through our days remember those that have fallen and sacrificed so much for you to have the opportunities you have today as an American.

On Friday September 10th, 2021, St. Mary Cathedral School prayed the rosary in honor of the 20th anniversary of 9/11 to stand together again as God created us to be.

Home with my new baby. -Mrs. Roundy

Where were you?

I was at work when my Mom called me to tell me to turn on the news. Everyone stopped what we were doing. We watched as the second plane hit and cried and prayed. - Mrs. Makarewicz

1st grade. I didn't realize what was going on, my mom turned on the TV and explained what was going on. Cool day because we got sent home at 10 am. -Mr. Warriner

In Gaylord, on my way to go to one of my customers to paint and scrap a ramp as I was walking out the door I had the TV on and just as I was going to shut it off they broke the news and rather than making my 9 am time it was 12:30 pm cause I couldn't believe it. -Mr. Mike

Right here in the school. In my 6th grade classroom. I didn't hear any details, went out at lunch and listen to radio cause there were no TVs in the school at the time. -Mrs. Roggow

I was at work in my office. I was listening to radio show. The news lady jumped in and said what happened and guys were joking "Some dummy crashed in to the WTC". We gathered and watched the towers fall on TV in the conference room -Mr. U

Room 36, teaching 5th grade in Houston. The teacher next to me told me "They are flying planes into World Trade Center." I didn't know what the World Trade Center was. We pulled a TV out into hallway cause we didn't want kids to see. -Mrs. Merrit

SNOWBIRDS BATTLE AGAINST JOBURG

The Lady Snowbirds headed over to Joburg High school Tuesday 9/7 for a rematch against the Cardinals. The Lady Snowbirds came in hot and won the first set. The confidence was there and so was the energy. The second set came around and The Lady Snowbirds fell behind early in the game and dug themselves a hole. The Snowbirds battled but it was too late to come back, resulting in a loss for the second set. By the third set, each team had won a game. The third set was back and forth between the two teams and it came down to a Cardinal win. The last set determined it all. The Snowbirds had a chance to come back and take the teams to five sets but unfortunately the Cardinals took the overall win. The Snowbirds fought but had nothing left to give. The Snowbirds are now 1-2 to the start of their season. The Lady Snowbirds will take on the Pellston hornets on 9/14 at home. Come out and support!

POINT OF VIEW FROM THE PLAYERS:

BEFORE THE GAME:

How do you feel about the upcoming match with Joburg?

I feel a little nervous because we have lost to them in preseason already but I'm excited for a rematch. - Ava Schultz

How do you believe your team will do in the game?

I think that if we play out to our full potential it will be a really good game because we definitely have the potential to win. - Bailey Murrell

AFTER THE GAME:

Were You Satisfied with the outcome of the game?

No, I really thought we could've done better to make the outcome of this game different. We didn't play to our full potential and its unfortunate that we lost. But we will get them in basketball season. - Macey Bebble

What is some advice to give to your team so a loss like this won't happen again?

I think that after winning the first set we can't let up and take a break. -Sydney Grusinzki

Faith In The Nest

This week's saint is Saint Therese. Saint Therese was the saint of small things! She did random acts to ensure the spread of kindness to all.

We interviewed a member of the varsity football team to find out how he relates his faith to Saint Therese's Mission.

Outside of school when do you see yourself using faith?

"Saying a prayer before I go to bed."

What's your favorite prayer to pray?

Why?

"The Glory Be. It's simple and good to remember."

How are you continuing St.

Therese's mission?

"By caring for my grandmother."
